EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. This policy sets out Skillzminer's approach to equality and diversity. We are committed to promoting equality and diversity and promoting a culture that actively values difference and recognises that people from different backgrounds and experiences can bring valuable insights to the workforce and enhance the way we work.
- 1.2. We aim to be an inclusive organisation, committed to providing equal opportunities throughout employment including in the recruitment, training and development of employees, and to pro-actively tackle and eliminatediscrimination.

2. EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

- 2.1. At Skillzminer Ltd, we consider that equality means breaking down barriers, eliminating discrimination and ensuring equal opportunities and access for all groups, both in employment and to goods and services.
- 2.2. We consider diversity to mean celebrating differences and valuing everyone. Each person is an individual with visible and non-visible differences, and by respecting this everyone can feel valued for their contributions, which is beneficial not only for the individual but for the Company too.

3. SCOPE

- 3.1. The rights and obligations set out in this policy apply equally to all employees, whether part-time or full time, on a substantive or fixed-term contract, and also to associated persons, such as secondees, agency staff, contractors and others employed under a contract of service.
- 3.2. Every employee has personal responsibility for the application of this policy. As part of your employee induction, you are expected to read and familiarise yourself with this policy, ensure that this policy is properly observed and fully complied with and to complete the declaration below.

- 3.3. This policy is also of particular relevance to directors, line managers and other employees concerned with recruitment, training and promotion procedures and employment decisions which affect others.

4. COMMITMENT

- 4.1. Every employee is entitled to a working environment that promotes dignity, equality and respect for all. We will not tolerate any acts of unlawful or unfair discrimination (including harassment) committed against an employee, contractor, job applicant or visitor because of a protected characteristic:

- sex;
- gender reassignment;
- marriage and civil partnership;
- pregnancy and maternity;
- race (including ethnic origin, colour, nationality and national origin);
- disability;
- sexual orientation;
- religion and or belief; and
- age.

- 4.2. Discrimination on the basis of work pattern (part-time working, fixed term contract, flexible working) which is unjustifiable will also not be tolerated.

- 4.3. All employees will be encouraged to develop their skills and fulfil their potential and take advantage of training, development and progression opportunities. Selection for employment, promotion, training or any other benefit will be on the basis of aptitude and ability.

- 4.4. No form of intimidation, bullying or harassment will be tolerated. If you believe that you may have suffered discrimination because of any of the above- protected characteristics, you should consider the appropriateness and feasibility of attempted informal resolution by discussion in the first instance with your line manager or another colleague in a relevant position of seniority. You may decide in the alternative to raising the matter through the Company's Grievance Policy.

- 4.5. Allegations regarding potential breaches of this policy will be treated in confidence and investigated in accordance with the appropriate procedure. We will ensure that individuals who make such allegations in good faith will not be victimised or treated less favourably by the Company as a result. However, false allegations of a breach of this policy which are found to have been made in bad faith will be dealt with under the Company's Disciplinary Policy.

- 4.6. A person found to have breached this policy may be subject to disciplinary action under the Company's Disciplinary Policy.

- 4.7. Our policy will be monitored and reviewed annually to ensure that equality and diversity are continually promoted in the workplace.

5. TYPES OF DISCRIMINATION

- 5.1. There are various types of discrimination prohibited by this policy. The main types are:

- a) Direct discrimination - Direct discrimination occurs when one person is treated less favourably than another because of a protected characteristic set out in this policy. By way of example, refusing to promote a pregnant employee on the basis that she is shortly due to go on maternity leave would be direct discrimination against the protected characteristic of the employee's sex. Other types of direct discrimination are:
- Associative discrimination - this is direct discrimination against someone because they associate with another person who possesses a protected characteristic. For example, an employee is discriminated against because his/her son is disabled.
 - Perceptive discrimination - this is direct discrimination against an individual because others think they possess a particular protected characteristic. For example, where co-workers believe the individual is gay. It applies even if the person does not actually possess that characteristic.
- b) Indirect discrimination - Indirect discrimination occurs when an unjustifiable requirement or condition is applied, which appears to be the same for all, but which has a disproportionate, adverse effect on one group of people. This is discrimination even though there was no intention to discriminate. For example, a requirement for UK based qualifications could disadvantage applicants who have obtained their qualifications outside of the UK; this could amount to indirect discrimination on the grounds of race.
- c) Victimisation - Victimisation is where an employee is treated less favourably than others because they have asserted legal rights against the Company or assisted a colleague in doing so. For example, victimisation may occur where an employee has raised a genuine grievance against the Company and is demoted as a result.
- d) Harassment - Harassment is "unwanted conduct related to a relevant protected characteristic, which has the purpose or effect of violating an individual's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for that individual." It is important to remember that it is not the intention of the harasser but how the recipient perceives their behaviour, which determines whether harassment has occurred.

6. WHEN DOES THIS POLICY APPLY?

- 6.1. This policy applies to all conduct in the workplace and also to conduct outside of the workplace that is related to your work (e.g. at meetings, social events and social interactions with colleagues) or which may impact Skillzminer's reputation (e.g. the expression of views on social media, contrary to the commitments expressed in this policy, that could be linked to the Company).

6.2. We set out below some specific areas of application:

- e) Recruitment - Selection for employment at Skillzminer will be on the basis of aptitude and ability. Further detail is set out in the Company's Recruitment and Selection Policy. Where possible, we will capture applicants' diverse demographics as part of its recruitment processes to promote the elimination of unlawful discrimination.
- f) Training - You may also be required to participate in training and development activities from time to time, to encourage the promotion of the principles of this policy.
- g) Promotion - All promotion decisions will be made on the basis of merit, and will not be influenced by any of the protected characteristics listed above. Promotion opportunities will be monitored to ensure equality of opportunity at all levels. Where appropriate, steps will be taken to identify and remove unnecessary or unjustifiable barriers to promotion.
- h) During employment - The benefits, terms and conditions of employment and facilities available to our employees will be reviewed on a regular basis to ensure that access is not restricted by unlawful means and to provide appropriate conditions to meet the special needs of disadvantaged or under-represented groups.
